

STATE THEATRE CENTER FOR THE ARTS, INC.

453 Northampton Street
Easton, PA 18042
610-258-7766 or toll free 1-800-999-STATE
Fax: 610-258-2570
Website: www.statetheatre.org

Location: The State Theatre Center for the Arts is located in historic downtown Easton, PA on the border of the Lehigh Valley and New Jersey. Easily accessed from Routes 22, 33, and I-78.

Entertainment: For over 75 years, the State Theatre has been entertaining Lehigh Valley audiences with high quality performances and headline entertainers in its main performance hall and the Acopian Ballroom.

Facilities: The State Theatre boasts a 1,500 seat performance hall. The Acopian Ballroom can accommodate 200 for dining and 300 for receptions. The Acopian Ballroom has full kitchen facilities. The Contemporary Gallery space can accommodate 120 for dining and 200 for receptions. The Galley Annex is perfect for smaller meetings (maximum 30).

State Theatre Seating Diagram

